INTRODUCTORY DISPLAY OF

OUR ART NEEDLEWORK DEPARTMENT. Already transformed into a temple of fancy, full of suggestions to "present givera." It isn't a bit too soon to be thinking about Christmas presents—especially such as you are going to make up yourselves. Our thoughts have taken tangible shape, particularly in the Art Needlework Parlors, as can be seen in the myriads of fancy made-up things and the su-perb stock of MATERIALS FOR MAKING INTO PRESENTS AND FOR HOME DECOR-TION GENERALLY, such as Portieres, Sash Curtains, Pillow Coverings, Screen Mountings, Picture Frame Coverings, Table Covers, Scarfs, Lamp Shades, Bed Spreads, &c.

FITTING HAND COVERINGS. Our "Glove" reputation rests upon such a solid basis that we can't afford to compromise it by buying cheap thrown-torether Gloves. WOODWARD & LOTHEOP. 10TH, 11TH AND F STS. N.W. FULL-FLEDGED" FASHION

It is not the easiest matter in the world to put our hands on nobby and original Closkings. Fashion plays such pranks that the weavers are wary of wading too deep into the sea of novelties. The plain MEL TONS, BEAVERS, RERSEYS, BOUCLES, &c., that were as popular last year as they are this—and will be next—are pienty. We have them in all shades. They are staples—a/ways with us. It is the catering Iney are staples—always with us. It is the catering successfully to the flights your fancy takes—spreading before you a line of absolutely freak creations—that brings you and us together so often. They are "yearlys"—making their debut this season—and perhaps giving way to some new comer the next. But they are the very acme of fashion for this winter. Scarce—but rich and elegant in effect—and very moderate in the cost—a usual combination with US.

NO STATE IN REBELLION.

RAINING AT NEW YORK

Precautions Taken to Prevent the Threatene Water Famine. New York, Nov. 16 .- Every precaution is being taken here to prevent the threatened water famine. Today the commissioner of public works issued peremptory orders to all water-meter inspectors throughout the city to carefully watch in every direction and see that no water was wasted. The shipping supply comes under the same reservation.

The supply of water at present available will not be sufficient for the use of the city for this week. A light rain is falling here today.

reach Buenos Ayres or Santiago, Chile.
The last official dispatch received here from the foreign office at Rio de Janeiro declaros that complete tranquility prevails everywhere throughout the country, with the exception of the state of Rio Grande do Sul. In no part of the country is there any demand for secession from the Brazilian union.

The state of Rio Grande do Sul has not seceded. The troubles there are entirely of a local character. They are not due to any de-sire of the state to sever its connection with the rest of the country, but owe their origin to political differences and discussions between the old parties into which the people of that state have been divided.
